Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 2009 Stockton Boulevard Partnership and Oak Park Business Association Directory!

I am thrilled with the success the directory had last year and anticipate another successful distribution. I want to thank the board members of the Stockton Boulevard Partnership and the Oak Park Business Association, as well as the residents and business owners who have worked diligently to enhance the vitality of our business community. Without your hard work and dedication, our community would not be able to grow and prosper during these tough economic times.

With continued collaboration and commitment, I know we can further improve Oak Park, Stockton Boulevard, and the City of Sacramento as a whole.

Again, thank you for your hard work and best of luck for another successful year.

Sincerely,

Kevin Johnson

Dear Business Leaders & Patrons:

Welcome to the 2009 Oak Park & Stockton Boulevard Directory! With this impressive roster of businesses, there is no wonder why we have seen a resurgence of these two historically significant commercial corridors in recent years.

The success of Oak Park and Stockton Boulevard is the result of the effective collaboration between business and property owners, the city and county of Sacramento, the Sacramento Housing & Redevelopment Agency, law enforcement agencies and the surrounding neighborhoods. Under the leadership of Terrence Johnson, and with the vision of the Boards of Directors, and the hard work of the organizations' staff, I know we will continue to meet our future goals and challenges.

It can be said that both business corridors—where people of many cultures converge—are a microcosm of Sacramento, one of our country's most diverse populations. This diversity contributes to the vitality of our community and is something we can be proud of and build upon.

I wish you all great prosperity in the coming year.

Best wishes,

JIMMIE R. YEE

Dear Friends,

Thank you to everyone for their continued hard work and vision for Stockton Boulevard.

While the city, state and nation are facing difficult economic times, the Stockton Boulevard area continues to improve through the diligent efforts of residents, local business owners and the Stockton Boulevard Partnership. These efforts continue to make a significant difference to the look and safety of Stockton Boulevard.

Congratulations to the Stockton Boulevard Partnership, with strong leadership from their board and their Executive Director, Terrence Johnson, they continue to provide the area with needed resources and services, as well as a forum for addressing community concerns. Our continued attention and investment along Stockton Boulevard will keep on paying off by keeping our community and city thriving.

Sincerely,

Kevin McCarty
